

Opinion Writing/Speaking Assessment Rubric
4eme Bilingual English 2019-2020

	4	3	2	1
Content	Speech takes a clear position and supports it with extensive pertinent information.	Speech takes a clear position and supports it with basic pertinent information.	Speech either lacks a clear position or lacks supporting information.	Speech lacks a clear position and supporting information.
Techniques	Uses a variety of persuasive techniques to convince the listener.	Generally uses persuasive techniques, though could have used more.	Begins to use persuasive techniques, but there are moments when interest is lost.	Only rarely uses persuasive techniques.
Language	Consistently appropriate register. Uses formal, standard English.	Mostly appropriate register throughout. Only occasional errors.	Attempt at using correct register. Simple but accurate English.	Struggles to maintain the correct register. Grammar errors hinder presentation.
Structure	Very well-organized. Clearly divided into sections. Easy for the audience to follow.	Well-organized. Divided into sections although some are not well separated. Generally flows well.	Some sense of organization. Occasionally uses signal phrases to guide the listener. Does not always flow well.	Uses some simple signals to guide the listener. Organization needs to be worked on in future presentations.
Pronunciation	Fluent speaker. Clear and accurate pronunciation.	Approaching fluency.	Generally clear and accurate. Occasional errors in pronunciation.	Some errors of pronunciation hinder the audience's understanding.